

There was a significant decrease in the mean between year 1 and year two. This could be related to the huge decrease in revenue for PRU.

The standard deviation showed a steady decrease across all 4 years making it less risky to invest in this sector as time progresses.

50% of companies made the median across all 4 years.